

MINUTES OF JANUARY 14th, 1920.

The Board of Public Works met this day in the private office of the Governor at Annapolis, there being present Governor Harrington and Comptroller McMullen. Comptroller McMullen offered the following order:

Ordered: That Governor Emerson C. Harrington be allowed the privilege of purchasing the flags used at the Mansion for the last four years, following the usual custom, for the sum of $5.00, and that he also be allowed the privilege of purchasing the small bed occupied by his young son, William J. at the sum of $5.00.

Treasurer Jackson having been notified over the telephone consented to the passage of this order. It was thereupon ordered.

There being no other business, the Board adjourned.

Secretary, pro tem.
